Over 34 years of experience in the tourism industry

Travco has been a key player in the Egyptian Tourism market for over 36 years, during which it has grown into a travel, tourism and hospitality conglomerate offering the full spectrum of tourism services across the Middle East. The group's strong presence owes itself to a history of service excellence, a far-reaching network of partners, forward-thinking vision and a global business outlook.

The 18 year award winning group owns and operates the country's largest fleet of 22 Nile cruise ships; an extensive collection of over 50 hotels and resorts; and a variety of ground transportation fleet approaching 1000 vehicles. The group's extensive experience as owner and operator of various tourist facilities and services added to the company's years of collaboration with major airlines and hotels, has enabled it to customize virtually every type of travel package from enticing resort holidays, to special creative packages that highlight cultural, recreational and truly adventurous facets of Egypt.
